Homestead Hospital: Community Service Experience

Starting in June of 2018, I began volunteering at the front desk in Homestead Hospital. Since then, every Friday from 4pm to 8pm I have had the responsibility of discharging patients, delivering food trays, escorting professionals, cleaning wheelchairs, delivering gifts to patients, and directing visitors. These are all the reasons why I wanted to volunteer at Homestead Hospital in the first place. Nevertheless, I also took this opportunity so I would be able to get a feel for the hospital atmosphere while giving back to my community.

By doing this I believe I have created an impact not only on those patients in the hospital but also my own life. After patients have experienced a long stay at the hospital the thing they are most excited for is to get home as quickly as possible. As volunteers at the front desk we get to help them leave in the most comfortable way. A way that leaves a smile on the patients face and my face. I really enjoy giving them words of encouragement and listening to their experiences. Volunteering at the hospital has been one of the best choices I have made to date.
